News You Can Use

Dear Friends,
What a joyful, beautiful ordination weekend for the Church! For those who planned to watch by livestream and discovered it was not working, we will let you know if a recording is shared by St. John's Cathedral. To all who were able to attend, thank you. And to the many who provided the reception yesterday after church, thank you!

It is a privilege to be part of the journey toward ordination with those called to Holy Orders- and you, the congregation, are the ones who do the work. It is our worship and prayer, hospitality and committees, singing and listening to what and how God is moving us as a congregation that sustain the life of the church so that calls can be discerned, and formation can happen. Thank you for your part in it over these many years, for Durango and Charles, and more recently for Amanda. Amanda's first Sunday as a Deacon at St. Aidan's will be Palm Sunday.

Now we go deeper into Lent still, on our way to Holy Week and the Cross.

This week and following, our Lenten Study "With Gladness: Holy Disciplines for Disciples" will be offered on Tuesdays at 11am ONLY by zoom or in-person, due to low interest for the evening sessions. Find the session handouts on our website here.

With gladness,
M. Mary Kate Rejouis+

Winter Clothing Drive

Our partners with Boulder Food Rescue/Food Not Bombs are collecting used or new winter clothing (especially coats, gloves, hats, warm pants and socks). There is a collection bin in the Parish Hall, and items will be collected over the next several weeks of winter.

Did you know that Food Not Bombs prepares food every Saturday at 11am at St. Aidan's to be delivered to unhoused persons in downtown Boulder? If you'd like to volunteer to help, you can show up on a Saturday or email here for more information.

Wednesday Mornings 7am Hybrid Holy Eucharist and Bible Study

For decades a small group gathered at 7am for Holy Eucharist in the Chapel, with a rigorous, thoughtful, charitable, and deep Bible Study. Then COVID happened, and we've been meeting by Zoom at 7am since then. Now we're going to offer this in both formats. Wednesday mornings can be a great way to be in church every week, especially if other things take you away over the weekends. Consider making a (Lenten) habit of it, and seeing if it is a good fit for you. We are currently doing a chapter by chapter study of Genesis.

Looking for a Monthly Bible Study for Women?

Canon Katie Pearson at St. John's Cathedral, Denver, leads a marvelous Bible Study Monthly on 2nd Tuesdays at 5pm by Zoom. Currently studying the genealogy of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew, read the Book of Ruth and join on March 12, and April 9. Email Canon Pearson for the Zoom link.

Online Directory in Realm--let's use it!

St. Aidan's has been using Realm as our membership and donation management software for a while. It is a useful tool for us to stay connected as a congregation. The first step is for each person to get connected with your Realm account and opt in to the directory.

If you need to call or reach out to someone from church by email or phone, but you don't have a directory (we haven't printed updates for a while), this is how you can find that information in a safe, secure format.

First, you need to have a login and credentials (your email and a password you choose).

- If you give, or have given online, you have a login already.
- If you can't find yours, or don't have a login, you'll need to ask for an invitation to be sent to your email. You do that by sending an email to Kelly Champion, our Realm Manager at realm@saintaidans.org.

To ensure you're included in the directory, please take a moment to opt in by following these simple steps:

- Log in to Realm using your credentials.
- Click on your profile picture in the screen's top right corner.
- Select "Settings" from the dropdown menu.
- Choose who you would like to see your contact information:
- Select "Anyone in the church" to be added to the church directory.
- Alternatively, if you prefer, you can only have leaders see your information for added privacy.

By using Realm this way, you are supporting a connected church community. You can also download a Realm app to your smartphone, and have the church directory at your fingertips that way!

Thank you for being part of St. Aidan's!

From Care for Creation — A Lenten Meditation

"Climb the mountains and get their good tidings. Nature's peace will flow into you as sunshine flows into trees. The winds will blow their own freshness into you, and the storms their energy, while cares will drop off like autumn leaves. We all flow from one fountain Soul. All are expressions of one Love." -John Muir, Our National Parks
